

Titel:

TECHNICAL PROJECT ENGINEER (M/F)

Region:

Hamburg

Reports to:

Technical Account Director

What you can expect:

- Game-changing projects for national and international brands and products
- Encouragement of personal responsibility and client contact
- Very good opportunities for further development in interdisciplinary teams
- Open minded and positive team work
- Excellent opportunities to extend your network

Your tasks

- Coordination and handling of international projects in cooperation with brand owners, packaging machine suppliers
- and packaging material manufacturers with the focus on
- Development of innovative packaging processes for the "industry 4.0"
- Optimisation of infra-logistics for optimal packaging value streams
- Design of packaging processes for new products
- Automation of existing packaging processes
- Optimisation and efficiency improvement of existing packaging lines

Your profile:

- Completed university degree preferably in packaging technology with focus on filling technologies or in mechanical engineering
- Minimum 3 years professional experience in the packaging industry with focus on filling processes and handling of packaging items
- Knowledge in the area of plastics packaging (flexible and rigid) desirable
- Good project management skills
- Intercultural awareness
- Very good communication skills
- Excellent knowledge of MS-Office programs
- Fluent in English (written and spoken)
- German and other language desirable
- Flexibility and open to travel

Contact:

KNOX GmbH
Neuer Wall 71
20354 Hamburg
T +49 (0)40 18 05 64 18
hr@knox-gmbh.com
www.knox-gmbh.com